Assistant Coaches: Carroll Dawson, Baylor '60; Rudy Tomjanovich, Michigan '70

Trainer: Ray Melchiorre, Bethel College (TN) '70

DEDICATION

This edition of the Rockets media guide is dedicated to the memory of Dick Vandervoort, the only trainer and traveling secretary the team had since the franchise moved to Houston in 1971. For 16 years Dick was a "big guy" for the Rockets. He died suddenly July 4, 1987. We all shall miss him.

CHARLES F. (Charlie) THOMAS

Chairman of the Board, Houston Rockets

"Charlie Thomas is the consummate self-made man, a roll-up your-sleeves sort of business mogul...at 5-9 he plays above the corporate rim...starting out at age 18 as an auto parts runner for $40 a week, he now owns 23 automobile dealerships...and 54 percent of the Houston Rockets...His money is sunk into real estate, ranching, banking, hotels, insurance, television and Charlie T.'s restaurant...He owns a home in River Oaks and another in Pebble Beach, Calif., where he campaigned for close friend Clint Eastwood during the mayoral campaign in neighboring Carmel...in less than four years, he has used his business savvy, and a couple of winning coin flips, to build one of the most envied franchises in the N.B.A." (HOUSTON POST, Ray Buck, April 27, 1986).

Charlie Thomas in the summer of 1982 was a quietly successful automobile dealer who since then has become a famous successful owner of the Houston Rockets. He purchased the team for around $12 million and has nurtured it to where an August, 1986 Fortune magazine ranking of pro team values placed it in the $31-$35 million category.

In his sixth season as the Rockets' owner, longer than any of the prior six proprietorships of the team, his style of operation has influenced the complete franchise. He brought in Austin developer Gary Bradley as a 20 per cent owner and sold limited partnerships in the remaining 26 percent of the club.

His management team is headed by 20-year N.B.A. front-office veteran Ray Patterson, who has been President and General Manager of the Rockets for 15 years, and by Bill Fitch, who is in his 18th year as an N.B.A. Head Coach and his fifth with the Rockets. Within four years Thomas saw his team go from the bottom with a 14-68 record to winning the Western Conference with a 51-31 mark before falling in the finals to the Boston Celtics in 1986.

Since his first year as an owner when attendance was an average 7,491, there have been yearly increases to a record sellout mark of 16,102 last season. The Rockets also receive a 49 per cent share of the profits of the Arena Operating Company. A broadcast package second to none in pro sports complete the package with all games broadcast on KTRH Radio-740, all road games telecast on KTXH TV-20 and all home games on Home Sports Entertainment cable.

Born in Knoxville, Tenn., where he attended the University of Tennessee for two years, he became a Texan in 1956 when he joined an auto agency in Corpus Christi. He purchased his first agency in 1967 in Baytown. He was the 1982 recipient of the "Mr. Sportsman" award given by Interfaith Charities, a joint effort of the B'Nai B'rith and the Knights of Columbus, and was honoree at the Easter Seals Gala in October, 1986.

Charlie and his wife, Kittsie, reside in River Oaks. They are the parents of three daughters: Kelly; Robin (Mrs. Danny) Klaes, who opened her first business, Shenanigans Boutique in Highland Village in 1986, and Tracy Lee (Mrs. Jeff) Everist, who as a Texas A&M co-ed in 1983 made the correct call of heads for her father in the N.B.A. coin flip which gave the Rockets the rights to Ralph Sampson.

GARY BRADLEY

Vice-Chairman of the Board, Houston Rockets

An Austin real estate developer, Gary Bradley, a self-confessed basketball fanatic, purchased a 20 per cent interest in the Houston Rockets, Aug. 15, 1984. Charlie Thomas remains the team's majority shareholder and general partner with a 54 per cent interest while the remaining 26 per cent is shared by 30 limited partners. Both Thomas and Bradley are seen quite frequently at Rockets out of town games in addition to the home contests. Bradley, 39, is a native of Amherst, a town of 825 located 50 miles northwest of Lubbock. He has been an Austin resident the last 20 years since enrolling at the University of Texas where he received his degree in finance. Since graduation he has been involved in the Austin real estate market. Regarding his 1977 Rob Roy development, Texas Monthly (May, 1984) said: "Located in the hills overlooking a scenic bend in Lake Austin, Rob Roy is considered by many developers to be the seminal land deal in Austin real estate history—financially, environmentally and politically."

RAY A. PATTERSON

President and General Manager, Houston Rockets

Ray Patterson has been a chief officer for an N.B.A. team for 19 years, a term equaled by Jerry Colangelo at Phoenix and surpassed only by Red Auerbach's 36 years with Boston. Of those in the league when Patterson started with Milwaukee and Colangelo at Phoenix in 1968, the only remaining owners are Richard Bloch of Phoenix and Abe Pollin of Washington while the only coach left is Jack Ramsay. This is Patterson's sixth year under club owner Charlie Thomas, his longest term under the same owner.

During his N.B.A. tenure, several distinctions belong to Patterson. He is the only General Manager in the league's 40 years to have two different franchises in the World Championship series. His 1971 Milwaukee Bucks captured the title in the quickest leap, three years, from expansion to championship in pro sports history. His 1981 and 1986 Rockets lost in the finals to the Boston Celtics. Only a handful of front office chiefs have been to the finals three times. Patterson's 19 teams have earned 123 playoff berths, including seven of the last nine seasons. His teams have won four division and three conference championships.

Patterson has been the unifying force behind the Rockets in Houston, joining the team in 1972 in its second season in Texas. He is just the third general manager in the 21-year history of the franchise which started in San Diego in 1967. Jack McMahon was the first Rockets' general manager in 67-68 and he was followed by Pete Newell who served three years until 1972. Patterson has helped cultivate a following for the team from an attendance low of 3,855 per game in 73-74 to last season's record sellout mark of 16,102. The last three Rockets' teams have become members of an elite group of N.B.A. teams to combine for over a million in home and road attendance.

Under Patterson, the Rockets have an aggressive marketing package which supplements one of the finest broadcast packages in pro sports. All games are broadcast on KTRH Radio-740. Long-range agreements have been signed for the telecast of all road games on KTXH TV-20 and all home games on Home Sports Entertainment cable.

A recent Fortune magazine ranking of the values of pro sports teams listed the Rockets among the top eight in the N.B.A. with a $31-$35 million value reflective of market size, management and marketing and competitiveness. An indication of just how far Patterson has guided this franchise is that just over a dozen years ago, the Rockets total attendance for the 73-74 season totaled 158,059, with the highest ticket priced at $6.

Born in Lafayette, Ind., Patterson holds Bachelor and Masters degrees from the University of Wisconsin where he was a four-year varsity basketball letter winner. He was team captain and MVP his final two seasons and as a senior edged out Arnie Risen of Big 10 champion Ohio State as first team all-conference center. Patterson played two seasons of pro basketball with the Flint, Mich., team in the old National Basketball League. In 1949 he returned to his prep school, Wayland Academy in Beaver Dame, Wis., as basketball coach, and in 1954 was named President and Headmaster of the school. He became the first President of the Milwaukee Bucks in 1968 and after four years there came to Houston as President and General Manager in May, 1972. He also serves on the Board of the South Main Bank.

Ray and his wife, Ruth, reside in Sugar Land. They have five children: Pat, a Princeton graduate; Steve, Liz, Peggy and Pete, all University of Texas graduates. Steve, an attorney, is counsel for the Rockets and responsible for the club's internal operations.

BILL FITCH

Head Coach, Houston Rockets

Bill Fitch and winning are synonymous...all you have to do is look at the record.

- * He is fifth on the all-time coaches' win list with a 716-677 (.514) record entering his 18th N.B.A. season...fifth with the Rockets.
- * Over the last 12 seasons his teams have had winning records and made it to the playoffs 10 times. Using this criteria only Red Auerbach of Boston (19 of 20, 1947-66) and Jack Ramsay (10 of 12, 1974-85 with Portland) can boast of such a success ratio over the same time frame.
- * He is the only coach in the 41-year history of the N.B.A. to have won championships in three different divisions.
- * He is one of eight coaches to have won 50 or more N.B.A. Playoff games (53-45, .541).
- * He is entering his 30th season as a coach, 12 on the college level, and he has compiled 950 wins, 19 winning seasons. Only Auerbach (1,037) and Ramsay (1,104) can boast of better marks combining college, N.B.A. regular season and playoff records.

Yes, Fitch knows what it takes. Four years ago he took over a Rocket team that had won 14 games. His first edition won 29 games, his second team 48, the 1986 squad went 51-31—capping it off with a trip to the N.B.A. Finals, and last season Houston finished 42-40 and made it to the playoffs despite an 11-17 start, injuries to Ralph Sampson and Akeem Olajuwon, plus the suspension of two key players (Lewis Lloyd and Mitchell Wiggins). The 141 wins is the most over a three-year period in the 20-year history of the Rockets' franchise.

The Rockets turned things around last season with an 11-4 spurt in January, which earned Fitch N.B.A. coach of the month honors. Last season saw Houston draw a franchise-record 660,175 fans during the regular season which saw it make it to the Western Conference semifinals a second straight year. He was the 1986 recipient of the "Mr. Sportsman" award given by Interfaith Charities, a joint effort of the B'Nai B'rith and the Knights of Columbus.

Fitch guided the Rockets to their best season to date as they won a club-record 51 games in 1986, plus they had a club-record 20-game home win streak to start the season, record home marks of 36-5 for the regular season and 9-1 for the playoffs. Houston clinched their first three playoff series on the road at Sacramento, at Denver and at the Los Angeles Lakers.

During 17 N.B.A. seasons—nine at Cleveland, four at Boston and four with Houston—he has had just seven losing campaigns. His teams have won five division titles. The Rockets won the Midwest in 1986, the 1976 Cavaliers won the Central, while three of his Celtic teams (80-82) won the Atlantic.

He put together the Cavaliers' expansion team and took them to the playoffs three times, including the 1975-76 season with a club-record 49-33 mark which resulted in his being named Coach of the Year. He drafted and developed for the Cavaliers John Johnson, Austin Carr, Dwight Davis, Jim Brewer, Campy Russell and Mike Mitchell.

In 1979 he took over a Boston team coming off a 29-win season, poorest mark in three decades, and guided the Celtics to a 32-game turn-around for a 61-21 record. That earned him Coach of the Year honors and made him the first coach to win that honor twice. The following year the Celtics won the N.B.A. championship after a 63-19 regular season. His four-year mark at Boston was 242-86, a .738 winning percentage. Fitch was the first pro coach for Larry Bird, Kevin McHale and Danny Ainge.

During 12 years as a college coach—at his Alma Mater Coe College in Iowa, at North Dakota, at Bowling Green and at Minnesota—he had only two losing seasons while compiling a 181-115 record. His last three North Dakota teams had a 70-16 record, and two of those clubs went to the Division II Final Four. His only Bowling Green team won the 1968 Mid-American Conference championship and then lost by one point to Marquette in the NCAA Tournament. He coached two years in the Big Ten at Minnesota before joining the pro ranks with Cleveland in 1970.

Born at Davenport, Iowa, Fitch was raised in Cedar Rapids where he attended both high school and Coe College. He starred in basketball and baseball for Coe. He was co-captain and a second-team All-Midwest Collegiate Athletic Conference selection his senior year as he led Coe to an 18-4 overall record and the league co-championship (9-3) in 1953-54. He was a three-year letterman in basketball. He received his B.S. degree in physical education from Coe in 1954, and in 1958 he earned his M.A. degree in educational psychology from Creighton. From 1956-58 he was head baseball coach and assistant basketball coach at Creighton where he coached former major league star Bob Gibson in both sports.

Fitch has won his 600th and 700th games as an N.B.A. head coach with the Rockets ... here's a list of his milestone wins:

CARROLL DAWSON

Assistant Coach, Houston Rockets

A "True Texan" on the Rockets' staff, Carroll Dawson hails from Alba, population 200, about 75 miles east of Dallas. As a 6-foot-5 center he led Alba High to an incredible 44-3 record as a senior. He then went on to win Junior College All-America honors at Paris, Texas, under Head Coach Boyd Converse. In two years at Baylor under Head Coach Bill Henderson, he led the Bears in both scoring and rebounding, 13.3 and 7.3 as a junior, and 16.4 and 8.8 as a senior, when he won All-Southwest Conference honors in 1960. Three years later he returned to Baylor as an assistant to Head Coach Bill Menefee. He succeeded Menefee as head coach in 1983 and remained for 3½ seasons. Dallas Cowboy executive Gil Brandt hired Dawson as a scout for the football team but a year later Dawson entered the business world as a salesman for Converse Shoe Company. After Scotty Robertson left the Rockets to become Head Coach of the Detroit Pistons in 1980, Rockets Head Coach Del Harris named Dawson as his top aide. After three years under Harris, including a 1981 run to the N.B.A. Finals, Dawson was retained by new Head Coach Bill Fitch and had another taste of the finals in 1986. A bachelor, Dawson resides in Houston and ranks among the top golfers in the coaching profession.

RUDY TOMJANOVICH

Assistant Coach, Houston Rockets

The "45" of assistant coach Rudy Tomjanovich, and the "23" of Calvin Murphy are the only numbers retired by the Houston Rockets. Now in his fifth year as an assistant to Coach Bill Fitch, Rudy scouted for the team for two years following his retirement as an active player in 1981. He spent his entire 11-year career with the Rocket franchise, one year in San Diego and the rest in Houston. His 13,383 points ranks him second to Murphy on the Rockets' all-time list, while his 6,198 rebounds places him behind only Elvin Hayes and Moses Malone. Four times he scored better than 20 points per game with a season-high of 24.5 in 1973-74. Five times he was selected to play in the N.B.A. All-Star Game, including a starting spot in the 1979 game at Pontiac, Mich., after he came back from a facial fracture suffered in December, 1977. He was a fixture at starting forward for the Rockets his first nine seasons. He led the team in scoring four times, rebounding once and in field goal percentage five times. He posted a career field goal mark of .501. A native of Hamtramck, Mich., he graduated from the University of Michigan where he is that school's all-time rebounder, 1,089, and third highest scorer, 1,808 behind Mike McGee and Cazzie Russell. Since 1974 that school's Most Improved Player Award has been named after him. Rudy and his wife, Sophie, reside in Southwest Houston with daughters Nicole, 14, and Melissa, 11, and a son, Rudy III, 4.

RAY MELCHIORRE

Trainer, Houston Rockets

Ray Melchiorre is only the second trainer and traveling secretary in Houston Rockets' history after being named to succeed Dick Vandervoort who died July 4th while at his farm in Maryland.

The 49-year-old Melchiorre has spent the last eight seasons in the same capacity with the Boston Celtics. Prior to that he was with the Buffalo Braves six years and the Pittsburgh Condors (ABA) two years. His flexibility program resulted in a dramatic reduction of muscle pulls and related injuries over his tenure with Boston. He was only the fifth trainer in the 42-year history of the Celtics. Bill Fitch was Boston's head coach, 79-83, during Melchiorre's first four seasons there.

A native of Philadelphia and a 1970 graduate of Bethel College in McKenzie, Tenn., where he was head trainer and baseball coach for four years, Melchiorre is a member of the National Trainers Association and has taught athletic injury courses at the University of Buffalo, Canisius College and Buffalo State College. In the summer months Ray continues his work, assisting with baseball camps throughout the United States and making speaking appearances.

Ray and his wife, Liz, reside in Houston. They have a son, Michael 24, and two daughters, Kathy 19, and Lisa, 14.

ROCKETS RADIO-TELEVISION-CABLE

KTRH RADIO-740 - KTXH TV-20

HOME SPORTS ENTERTAINMENT (HSE) • CBS • TBS

One of professional sports most complete broadcast packages is enjoyed by the Houston Rockets. All games are broadcast on KTRH Radio-740 AM while all road games are telecast by KTXH TV-20 and all home games cablecast by Home Sports Entertainment (HSE). As part of the NBA television package, the Rockets will make two appearances on CBS and will be seen five times on TBS. A weekly Rocket radio show, "Inside the Rockets," featuring team President and General Manager Ray Patterson is heard at 6:30 on Saturdays during the season on KTRH-740 while Head Coach Bill Fitch is heard Monday through Friday at 7:25 AM on KODA 99 FM Radio's "Fast Break."

In his 13th season as the Voice of the Rockets on radio is Gene Peterson. This year he will be joined on all broadcasts by Jim Foley, recently named the team's Director of Communications.

Peterson joined the Rockets in 1975 and has broadcast 984 regular season and 80 playoff games without a miss. A native of Albert Lea, Minn., he studied broadcasting at the Brown Institute in Minneapolis. After Air Force duty, he began his radio career at WECL, Eau Claire, Wis. He also worked at KOB, Albuquerque, NM, KCMO, Kansas City, Mo., and KPRC, Houston, before joining the Rockets. Gene and his wife, Marsha, reside in Kingwood with sons, Todd, 24, and Paul, 15, and daughter, Jennifer, 21. One of the top golfers in the broadcast ranks, the Houston Irish Open Golf Tournament has borne his name for the past three years despite his Scandinavian background.

Foley was the Rockets' Director of Public Relations the last 15 years after serving in that position for three years with the Milwaukee Bucks. A native of LaSalle, Ill., he is a graduate of Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wis. Following school, he served as an officer in the Navy for four years, and began his public relations career with the New York Central Railroad in Chicago. In 1965 he was named Sports Information Director at Marquette where he worked for four years before joining the NBA Bucks in 1969. He is active in area Irish activities including Houston's Annual St. Patrick's Day Parade and also is an avid golfer. He and his wife, Carolyn, reside in Houston.

Again, handling telecasts on both KTXH TV-20 and HSE is the team of "native Houstonians," Bill Worrell and McCoy McLemore. Worrell is a graduate of Lamar High and the University of Houston where he played varsity baseball. He began his broadcast career at KPRC TV-2 here in 1970. He has done play-by-play not only for the Rockets but also for the Astros and Oilers. He has been involved with Rocket telecasts on Channel 20 and HSE for the past three seasons after having been play-by-play on Rocket telecasts for KHTV-39 in 1980-81 and 1981-82. A bachelor, he also is one of the fine golfers associated with the Rockets.

McLemore graduated from Jack Yates High School in Houston, Moberly (Mo.) Junior College and Drake University in Iowa. He was a third round draft pick of the San Francisco Warriors in the 1964 N.B.A. draft and also played at Chicago, Phoenix, Detroit, Cleveland, Milwaukee and Houston, ending his pro career in 1972. He was a member of Bill Fitch's expansion Cleveland team in 1970 but ended the season a member of the 1971 NBA champion Milwaukee Bucks as a result of a trade engineered by Bucks then General Manager Ray Patterson.
